We firmly believe that building up good students not only rests in the hands of their parents and the present school, but also their kindergarten. A sound kindergarten education is indispensable for nurturing students' future success. Therefore, we would like to express my gratitude to your school for the quality education you and your team have provided for these aspiring individuals.

We look forward to admitting students of yours and are ready to offer them education of high quality in order to develop them into young people of high calibre.

Thank you for your kind attention.

Yours faithfully,

Chau Wing Sze

Principal
